Galveston Written by Jimmy Webb.
[Verse 1]
             C D G
                                                            Am
Galveston, oh Galveston, I still hear your sea winds blowin'
 D
                                 Am
I still see her dark eyes glowin'
               Em
           D
                                        G
She was twenty-one when I left Galveston
[Verse 2]
                 D G
G
Am
Galveston, oh Galveston, I still hear your sea waves crashing
     D
        G
                                  Am
While I watch the cannons flashing
           Em
       D
I clean my gun and dream of Galveston
```

```
[Bridge]
A#
                                 A#
I still see her standing by the water
                               A#
Dm
Standing there lookin' out to sea
            Gm
And is she waiting there for me?
        Am
                       Dm
                               Gm
On the beach where we used to run
[Verse 3]
                   G
G
                                                   Am
Galveston, oh Galveston, I am so afraid of dying
       D G
                                      Am
Before I dry the tears she's crying
         Em
                                      Bm
                                             Am
Before I watch your sea birds flying in the sun
         Em C
At Galveston, at Galveston.
